Eligibility for travel insurance

To be eligible for cover, you must be a financial member of your union (and remain a financial member for the duration of your trip), under 70 years of age and the duration of your trip is limited to the period of travel. (See Period of Cover below.)

Cover for you and your family

Your spouse/partner and dependant children are also covered when they travel with you.

Period of cover is limited to 14 days within Australia and 28 days overseas

Travel insurance starts from the date you leave your usual home residence and ends on the 14th day of travel within Australia (provided your destination is more than 250km from your residence) and on the 28th day of overseas trips.

You can buy extra insurance if you're travelling beyond the period of cover

Extra travel insurance is available for you to buy at very competitive rates. Or, you can seek additional cover with another travel insurance provider. But if you decide to extend your stay while you're away, you need to buy extra travel insurance to keep you covered.

Immediate access to specialist care 24/7

QBE Assist, a fully owned division of QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited (our insurer), is responsible for coordinating any medical evacuation and repatriation services required. The team, made up of highly trained medical and insurance specialists, is ready to respond, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, in the event of an emergency situation.

Policy on pre-existing medical conditions

You are not covered for claims caused by, or directly the result of, medical conditions for which you have received or been prescribed treatment, medication, preventive medication, a prescription or an investigation within 30 days of booking your journey. This also applies for claims made due to the illness of non-travelling relatives and business partners.

However, there are a limited number of conditions that, if stable and well controlled, will not be treated as an existing medical condition. For the full list of conditions, see the Policy Schedule or download a copy from your union's website.

Other terms, conditions and exclusions apply – read the policy wording for full details.
